Creditors are requested to file their claims in writing as at 13th March 2009. They should show interest separately and describe any preferential rights and lien. Supporting evidence (contracts, copies of invoices, reminders, etc.) should also be submitted within the mentioned submission deadline.

Creditors who do not register their claims in due time will forfeit their voting rights in the negotiations concerning the composition agreement.

The meeting of creditors will take place later. The according publication as well as the disclosure of the type of composition agreement will be published at least 30 days before the meeting.
